Time Trials

1. Take place on Day 4 of the meet only and are available to Irish athletes aged 15-18 years for European Junior Championships National Team purposes. Additional swims to complete a full heat from other age groups may be considered
2. Commence immediately following the completion of the heats of Session 11; the diving pool may be used for warm-up purposes
3. Coaches/Team Managers must make an entry request for a Time Trial swim on or before the end of Session 10 via the official Time Trial Entry Form and in paying the Time Trial entry fee and are allocated on a National Performance Director discretion basis
4. Athletes need to have achieved the Meet Qualifying Time to apply for a Time Trial in an event
5. Time Trials cannot qualify an athlete for a Final nor qualify them for an Award
6. Within the Time Trial session, there will be a maximum heat limit per gender as follows:
  - All 50m Events: 3 x Heats
  - All 100m Events: 3 x Heats
  - All 200m Events: 2 x Heats
  - All 400m Events: 1 x Heat
  - 800m Events: 1 x Heat
  - 1500m Events: 1 x Heat
7. Time Trials will be run in accordance with World Aquatics requirements to ensure times achieved can be fully ratified and validated as legitimate times
